

Suzuki Violin Book 1-4 Workshop with David Strom October 15th and 16th, 2016

Aimee Lopez is excited to present renowned SAA teacher and trainer David Strom who will teach a workshop on Saturday and Sunday Oct. 15th and 16th at Colonial Hills United Methodist Church. Mr. Strom will teach a Group Class, a Parent Class and 2 hours of Masterclasses each day (students will be selected by invitation only.) Group classes are open to any Suzuki student currently working on Violin Book 1-4 and will only cover material from those books. Memorization of the Twinkle Variations through your current piece is expected. David is a nurturing and gifted teacher with a passion for helping Parents. There is truly something for everyone at this workshop— parents, teachers, and students. Come and experience growth!

About David Strom:

“David is a gifted teacher. He is a precious combination of heart, instinct, intelligence and training. He cares deeply about his students and is driven by the interest of partnering with their parents in developing their child into smart, focused, responsible, expressive, talented, sensitive and kind citizens in the world. When teaching, he is completely centered on the child. David is creative with imaginative and fun ways to present musical and technical concepts.” -Ronda Cole
