Dress: formal concert attire - no jeans, t-shirts, mini-skirts, shorts or sneakers, please

Performance guidelines:

- Each active STXSA member may invite up to three students to perform at each musicale. If your student is playing a piece longer than 10 minutes, please invite only one student per musicale. If you have more students ready to perform, please contact the musical chairman to see if there is time available.
- Parents, friends and family members are welcome to attend
- Please feel free to videotape your student's performance, but please do not block the aisle or the audience's view of the stage with your camera.
- Please do not take flash photographs while a student is performing. There will be an opportunity for a group photo at the end of the entire performance.
- Please instruct children to respect the church, its property and grounds. No food or drinks in the sanctuary. No smoking or running around will be tolerated. Everyone should be on his/her best behavior.

Application guidelines:

- Send your completed application(s), BEFORE the appropriate deadline, to:
Judy Offman, 3814 Linkview Drive, Houston, TX 77025
Musicale length will be limited to approximately 45 minutes, with a punch and cookies reception immediately following.
- Participation will be granted on a first-come, first-serve basis.
- Teachers are responsible for insuring that their students have an accompanist and are adequately rehearsed with their accompanist.
- Teachers and students are asked to please bring cookies or other finger-food snacks, on a serving plate, to share with everyone following the performance.
- MUST HAVE PARENTS SIGNATURE ON THE BOTTOM OF THE STUDENTS APPLICATION.
