

The Bow Arm Journey

from Pre-twinkle to Book 10 and Beyond A Teacher Workshop with Cathryn Lee

September 30 - October 2, 2016

Teachers, bring your violin or viola and prepare to meet the Panda! Beginning with the simplest games and exercises for the pre-twinkler, we will take our bow arms on a life-long journey towards the most advanced bowing techniques in the violin literature. Experience the "magic" as we bend our knees and circle, tick-tock land and stop, and jellyfish our way from staccato to sautillé.

Comments from previous class participants:
"I was amazed at how Mrs. Lee's classes improved my own playing, not to mention my teaching." "Playing advanced repertoire has never felt this easy before. It's like using the bow is almost effortless." "Cathy Lee is The Queen of The Bow!"

San Francisco based violin teacher Cathryn S. Lee has taught countless families and teachers around the world since 1976. She is respected for teaching all ages and levels using her detailed and practical "best of both worlds" approach inspired by her studies with Dr. Shinichi Suzuki and her "traditional" studies with concert artist Dame Camilla Wicks.

As a teacher trainer, Cathryn has taught and lectured at SAA National Conferences, Leadership Summits/Retreats, Suzuki Method World Conferences, the first International Suzuki Teacher Trainer Conference in 2009 and most recently at the 16th Suzuki World Convention in 2013. She has given master classes and pedagogy classes in Australia, Canada, England, Italy, Japan, New Zealand and throughout the United States. She is the Artistic Consultant for the Northern California Suzuki Institute. Cathryn is a regular guest lecturer in String Pedagogy at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music. She is the author of Bow Exercises, Bow Strokes and the Bow Stroke Excerpts for Violin books. In 1977, Cathryn founded the Suzuki Music Studio of San Francisco where she continues to teach students and train teachers. Her students have held titled chairs in numerous youth and school orchestras and placed in numerous competitions including the Junior Bach Festival. Cathryn has a B.A. in Performance and Composition, M.A. in Performance from San Francisco College for Women and a teaching certificate from the Talent Education Institute in Japan. She and her husband raised their sons, Whit an actor/violinist in New York City and Corin, a violinist and graduate of Juilliard and Yale University.
